

FORBES INDONESIA
LEADERSHIP FORUM ON STATE OWNED ENTERPRISES
"RAISING THE BAR"

Jakarta, May 22, 2012--Forbes Indonesia is proud to announce its first Leadership Forum on State Owned Enterprises, entitled "Raising the Bar." This event is meant to provide a venue for sharing best practices, networking and thought leadership on the critical role of SOEs in the Indonesian economy.

To discuss this important topic, Forbes Indonesia has organized a group of top-level VIPs from the private and public sectors. The guest of honor is Minister Dahlan Iskan, the Minister for State Owned Enterprises, along with guest speaker Steve Forbes, the chairman and editor-in-chief of Forbes Media.

Other noted speakers at the event will be Managing Director and Senior Country Officer-Indonesia of J.P. Morgan Haryanto Budiman, Chairman of Gemala Group and Santini Group Sofjan Wanandi, CEO of Garuda Indonesia Emirsyah Satar, Founding Partner of AndrewTani & Co. Andrew Tani, President Director of Bank Mandiri Zulkifli Zaini, President Director of Telkom Indonesia Arief Yahya, President Director of Bank Negara Indonesia Gatot Mudiantoro Suwondo, President Director of Semen Gresik Dwi Soetjipto; and Dato' Sri Dr. Tahir, Chairman and CEO of Mayapada Group, who is also the franchise holder of Forbes Indonesia.

The event will be held in the Four Seasons Jakarta Ballroom and attended by 200 VIP delegates. One of the highlights of the event will be the award ceremony for six SOEs listed on the prestigious Forbes Global 2000. The six are Bank Rakyat Indonesia, Bank Mandiri, Telkom Indonesia, Bank Negara Indonesia, PGN, and Semen Gresik. The list is an annual ranking that includes the 2000 largest public companies in the world and is published by Forbes magazine in the United States.

"We are pleased and honored to be working with the Ministry of State-Owned Enterprises to present this important event. The role that the SOEs play in the development of the country is critical. We hope this event will provide thought leadership and encourage best practices for the state sector," says Dr. Tahir.
